"The album has a very satisfying fusion of instruments and sound. A not quite Caribbean feel presented by Machida's steelpan (or steel drum if you prefer), a healthy dose of the New Wave vibe, especially on "Hajde Peda," and lovely violin work, all mix together into this odd Serbian-Japanese post-pop-folk gem." - Delusions of Adequacy

Mutation of Post-rock.

"All my life I was quiet maid So I wouldn't like to be slain On a ship I came aboard and I travelled abroad They changed my code Oh, and now I'm your grandpa"

Mutation of "POP" post-rock by a Japanese active steelpanist / sound artist, "Yoshio Machida" & a post-folk band, "Cinc". Sophisticated lyrics & sound burst! So far they palyed together, for example, at famous music festival in Belgrade "Ring Ring" ( Otomo Yoshihide, Fred Frith, Metamkine, Djivan Gasparyan, etc. played there in the past.) Then they recorded their pieces at last in spring, 2006. Machida has visited to Serbia some times when he had his tours in Europe (incl. ISEA2004, MAERZ Musik, etc ). Cinc is an alternative band which leads Serbian alternative scene. 2 albums are already released from Amorfon, praised by Simon Raymonde (Cocteau Twins) as "Beguiling". Member is Djordje Ilic (guitar, vocal), Luka stanisavljevic (bass, vocal) Irena Vanic (vocal), Srdjan Stojanovic (violin). Beautiful melody by Steel Pan (tr1), singing comical mind of a girl waiting (tr2), a hero is active in moon night (tr8), Balkan's 11 time with vocorder (tr9), reminiscent of the 80s cool New Wave (tr10), Grandma became grandpa?(tr11)... Acoustic, 8bit, steel pan, kitschy, electronics to orchestral & grunge... Cross over genre from post-rock to electronica like : Hanne Hukkelberg, Peter, Bjorn and John, Yo La Tengo, Leaf, Morr Music...
